The Alliance has provided.....

The Montgomery County Medical Society Alliance is a volunteer organization of physicians' spouses and physicians that promotes the health of the community through education and philanthropic activities.

The goals of the Alliance include;

-Supporting health related charitable endeavors through projects and by encouraging volunteer participation in activities which meet health needs;

-Assisting in those programs of the Montgomery County Medical Society that improve the health and quality of life through health education and services;

- Upholding the programs of the Ohio State Medical Association Alliance.

$830,000 for medical and nursing scholarships. Wright State University, Sinclair College and Kettering College students have all been beneficiaries.

Health outreach educational programs for the Miami Valley community and beyond. Our original RAYS program has been presented by area doctors to classroom students and sold in the U.S. and internationally.

Monitoring state and national health care legislation with monthly updates about current legislation.

$297,000 has been given to the Foodbank (Dayton), the YWCA Domestic Violence Shelter and Reach Out Montgomery County.
